

TRENTHAM PROGRAM 2019

Saturday 3 August

Clever Towns Challenge – at the Trentham Library 10-11.30am

This is a Shire-wide event where towns compete against each other trying to solve the Snodger's crossword puzzle. Reference books only are allowed, no phone a friend or internet permitted. The town which finishes first with the most correct answers wins the trophy for the year. Competition is fierce and Trentham is always on the look out for more people to help us win. So come along and join in the fun.

Friday 16 August

Contemporary Poetry – this will be conducted as a salon event at Chaplins, High Street, Trentham at approximately 5pm – 7pm. There will be readings by local poets. Poets attending will be able to read an original poem which is no longer than 2 minutes. The Cath Pye Memorial Poetry Prize will be awarded on the night to the winner. This prize is $200.

Drinks and nibbles will be available. $10 cover charge. Contact Gael for more information on dindelong@optusnet.com

Saturday 17 August

Trentham Neighbourhood Centre - Discussion and movie - 1 – 4pm. The film, Dead Letter Office, will be shown followed by a discussion with Ina Bertrand and the film maker, John Ruane.

The protagonists of the film (Alice played by Miranda Otto, and Frank, played by George Delhoyo) are two social misfits who meet at the Dead Letter Office and find common ground in their pursuit of the past. John Ruane also directed Death in Brunswick.

The Trentham Historical Society will host a Dinner to honour Bruce McKenzie, Trentham's own Bush Poet at 6.30pm, 17 August.

The venue is Wyld Thyme restaurant, Market Street, Trentham.

Cost: $50 per person which is for a 3 course dinner, glass of wine and an evening celebrating Bruce's life and poetry.

Copies of Bruce's book, The Best of Bruce will be on sale at the event and also in the months before.

They are available from the Trentham Historical Society, Dr B's Bookstore or from Mike and Natalie Gretton on 0400919104. The cost of the book is $12.
