Clever Towns Challenge

This traditional Words in Winter event is hotly contested each year by all the towns involved in Words in Winter. It's a speed and accuracy contest via a general knowledge crossword. It's lots of chaos and lots of fun!

Reference books provided by Trentham Library and participants (bring any you have), but definitely no phone a friend or internet allowed!

Arrive at 9.45am for a run down of the rules, and be ready for a 10.00am sharp start - there's no time to waste!

Time: 9.45am arrival for 10.00am sharp start.

Place: Trentham Library.

Cath Pye Trophy - Contemporary Poetry Open Mic Night at Chaplins

Cath Pye was a conservationist, teacher, activist, wordsmith, historian, environmentalist, and poet. The Cath Pye Trophy was introduced when her family and friends made it a perpetual award in her honour after her death in 2013, to encourage and keep alive the spirit of poetry in her adopted town.

To Enter

This year the Cath Pye Trophy (with $200 cash prize) will be contested and awarded at an evening salon open mic event.

Register your entry on arrival – limited spots available. The theme is open, and there is a 2-minute/40lines limit per poem.

$10 entry includes a glass of wine and finger food, and the bar will be open.

Time: 5pm - 7pm.
